

Tyler Nicole Smith, Staff Attorney,
Legal Aid Foundation of Los Angeles

Tyler Nicole Smith is a staff attorney at the Legal Aid Foundation of Los Angeles for Project imPACT, a wraparound reentry program providing legal services, behavioral health services, job training, and job placement to Los Angeles residents who are currently on probation and parole, where she focuses on removing legal barriers caused by their criminal backgrounds.

Prior to joining the LAFLA team, Tyler was a staff attorney at the Legal Aid Society of Orange County, focusing on post-conviction relief. Before beginning her career in nonprofit legal services, Tyler served as a criminal defense attorney defending adult and juvenile defendants in misdemeanor and felony drug and theft cases. Tyler obtained her bachelor's degree in Economics from Spelman College in Atlanta, GA, and received her Juris Doctorate with a concentration in Trial and Appellate Advocacy from Suffolk University Law School in Boston, MA.
