I. General Information to Set Aside a UD Default Judgment

Once a default judgment has been entered, it may be difficult to set aside that judgment and halt an eviction. You may need to demonstrate that you were prevented from filing an answer or attending your trial for reasons that the court will accept. If the court grants your motion and signs that order, you may be potentially given another chance to properly file an Answer on your own behalf in the case.

ONCE THE SHERIFF LOCKS YOU OUT, IT MAY BE TOO LATE TO FILE THESE DOCUMENTS!

You may apply to have the eviction “stayed” and the default judgment set aside, but only BEFORE the sheriff executes the lock-out. The courts typically will only review motions if it retains the power to do so. Why? One reason is because new people may be living there already.

Filing an Ex Parte/Motion to Set Aside DOES NOT delay the Sheriff Lock-Out. Only an Order from the Court can stop the Sheriff Lock-Out. If you do not agree with this guide or have other questions, CONTACT a licensed attorney immediately for legal assistance!

What is a Default Judgment?

A default judgment (automatic loss) is a judgment entered against the other party usually because the other party failed to take some action required by law. To illustrate the concept, imagine a basketball game. The Landlord/Plaintiff is the Home Team, and the Tenant/Defendant is the Visiting Team. If the Visiting Team does not show up on time for the game, we would say that they have forfeited, and lost by default.

Why the Court Enters Default Judgments?

Usually, the Court enters a default and/or default judgment when defendants have:

- failed to file a written Answer to the complaint with the court on time, or
- failed to “appear” (present themselves) for their trial at the appointed date and time.

A. Failing to file a written Answer with the Court

- It is usually not sufficient grounds to say you did not know you had to file an answer
  - The Summons informs you that you have only five (5) court days to file a written Answer.
  - Also, the Court mails a 1-page courtesy notice telling you that an eviction lawsuit has been filed;

Most importantly, the Court may stay the eviction & set aside the default only when it finds that you have proven that, through no fault of your own, you were prevented from filing an answer for some very good reasons. Some examples are:

- you were not served with a copy of the Summons and Complaint; or
- if you have been served with a copy, you were nonetheless prevented from filing your Answer because of fraud, surprise, mistake, excusable neglect or inadvertence beyond your control;
- if you were hospitalized or bedridden and could not file a timely answer (you will need to establish this by your declaration and your hospitalization records or a doctor’s note);
- if the landlord’s actions (i.e. accepted your rent, etc.) led you to believe that you did not have to file an answer; (you will need to establish this by declarations and any documentary evidence)

B. Failing to attend your trial

- Failure to attend because you did not receive the Notice of Trial in the mail is difficult to prove.

The court internally schedules the trial dates after a party requests it and sends a two-page notice in the mail to the parties. Sometimes the tenant does not know about the trial date and misses it. At that time, the Court will automatically find for the Plaintiff/Landlord and enter a default judgment against the tenant/defendant.

- If you received the notice but were unable to attend because of an unexpected hospitalization or illness (you will need to establish this by hospital or doctor records in addition to your declaration.)
- If you got into an accident on the way to court;
- If you did not get the Notice in the mail because it was incorrectly addressed, other people have access to your mail, or the post office lost it;

II. What you will need if you did not file a written Answer with the Court on time:

Get copies of these following documents:

- Summons and Complaint*—including its Exhibits (attached documents – Notice, Lease/rental agreement, proof of service of the notice);
- Request for Entry of Default*—including a request for either a Clerk’s Judgment (for possession only) or for a Court’s Judgment (includes a judgment for money).
- Proof of Service of Summons*—there may be multiple Proofs of Service of Summons. Obtain them all including for “All Unknown Occupants.”
- Civil Case Summary* – the court index/summary of action or documents in the file.

Once you have those documents:

- Review first the Proof of Service of Summons, where you will find the date and time and in what manner the Plaintiff’s “process server” declares they served you, either personally to you or by other means.
- If the Proof of Service of Summons states that you were served by posting and subsequent mailing, the file must also have and you will also need to obtain a copy of another document called
  - Application and Order to Serve Summons by Posting for Unlawful Detainer* which has been signed by a judge.

How You may Refute the Proof of Service of Summons:

- Courts give a presumption of validity to a Proof of Service of Summons.
  - You will need to convince the Court that you were not properly served in the manner set forth in the Proofs of Service of Summons.
  - To do so, you will need to refute the declaration of the person who has declared under penalty of perjury that you were properly served.
- Review the proof of service information: who the process server says they served, where, and on what date and time. If they state they served you personally, is it true? Look at where, and what date and time?
  - To refute the Proof of Service of Summons, you may need some documentary proof that you could not have been served as stated on the Proof of Service of Summons. Such evidence might be that you were at work or out of town on the date & time the process server claims they served you or you were not present at the location stated.

- To prove it, you may need to include in your Ex Parte Application copies of your airplane ticket, your workplace timesheet, or other receipts that can show where you were at the time you were allegedly served the Summons and Complaint.

Preparing for your Ex Parte (Emergency) Court Date if no Answer was filed:

- The Ex Parte Application
- The Motion to Set Aside Default Judgment
- Proposed Answer
- Fee Waiver (Separate Packet - How To & Forms)

III. When You Filed Your Answer, but Failed to “Appear” for Your Trial

Get copies of these following documents:

- Summons and Complaint*—including its Exhibits (attached documents)
- Proof of Service of the Summons/Complaint* – the filing that shows who served the lawsuit against you and when, how, where etc.
- Notice of Trial* – the letter that the court sends with your trial date on it.
- Case Summary* – the court index/summary of action or documents in the file Evictions are considered “summary proceedings,” on an accelerated timeline.
- The law requires the Court to calendar an eviction trial within 21 days of the date that either party files the Request for Trial.
- The Court then mails a “Notice of Trial” to both parties, and a copy of that Notice and the Court Clerk’s Certificate of Mailing will be in the Court’s file.
- The law also has a presumption that if something is mailed by regular mail, the addressee is presumed to have received it. Therefore, you will have to overcome this presumption with evidence that you did not receive it.

What you may need to do:

- First check the court file
  - Where did the Court Clerk send the Notice of Trial?
  - Determine to whom and to what address the Court mailed the Notice of Trial.
    - If it was not mailed to you or to the address you put on your Answer, that may be evidence that you did not receive it due to the Court’s own error.
    - You could include a copy of the Notice of Trial and the Court Clerk’s Certificate of Mailing with your Ex Parte Application for Stay and your Motion to Set Aside the Default. You could indicate in your declaration that the Clerk sent the Notice of Trial to the wrong address.
  - Was the Notice of Trial Returned to the Court?
    - Ask the Court Clerk to print a “Case Summary” or “Case History.”
    - If the Notice of Trial did not reach you because it was returned to the Court, this may also evidence you did not receive it.

- Request a photocopy of the Notice of Trial and the envelope in which it was returned to the Court and include these photocopies with your Ex Parte Application for Stay and your Motion to Set Aside the Default.
- When the Notice of Trial was properly mailed and was not returned to the Court.
  - In these situations it is more difficult to overcome the presumption that you received the Notice of Trial.
  - The Court will look to evidence that someone else had the ability to intercept your mail. For example, if you do not have a secure mailbox, that may be evidence that someone else took the mail.
  - You will need photographs of your mailbox, or the location to which your mail is delivered to show the Court. Or any other evidence that shows why you would not get the trial date notice in the mail

Preparing for your Ex Parte (Emergency) Court Date if an Answer was filed but you missed the Court date:

- The Ex Parte Application
- The Motion to Set Aside Default Judgment

What to Expect at the hearing:

You will be required to present a copy of all your documents to the landlord/landlord’s attorney at the Ex Parte Hearing. You may want to speak with the landlord about any negotiations about your case. The landlord is not required to negotiate with you at this stage, but may do so in order to come up with an agreement/settlement that makes sense before going in front of the Judge.

The Landlord or its attorney will be present. They will likely argue aggressively that the case is over and that you should not be allowed to “reopen” your case for a second chance. You must refute/counter the claims clearly and concisely. Just because you file these forms does not automatically entitle you to re-open your case.

The Outcomes to the hearing:

If you are successful at the Ex Parte Hearing, the court will likely accept your proposed Answer (if you did not file one already) that you filed and set a new trial date in which to return to have your day in court. The Lock Out should be “stayed” or postponed until after the new trial date. Be prepared to state your case at that new trial date with the necessary evidence, photos, testimony etc.

Also, if you are successful, the Court will give you an Order to Quash or cancel the Sheriff lock out of your home. You should not leave the Courtroom until you receive a signed Order from the Court cancelling the lock out to show the Sheriff just in case the Court cannot recall them in time. The Sheriffs may already be on the way to your home.

If the Judge does not grant your Motion, the Sheriff lock out will proceed as scheduled. Remember the Sherriff must serve a FIVE (5) Day Vacate Notice before they return to escort or “Lock” you out of your home. Remember that upon occasion, these notices are removed by the landlord’s agents, neighbors and other vandals to hamper your ability to know when your lock out is.

If you are locked out, your landlord is required to keep your possessions in storage for you to pick up for a short period of time. The landlord may charge you for the storage of these possessions, but if you do not pick up your things within the timeframe under the law, the landlord may keep, sell, or discard all of your possessions left in the home after the lock out. Therefore, it is usually a good idea to transfer most of your valuables to storage or a friend/relative's home for safekeeping.

STEPS TO PREPARING & FILING YOUR EX PARTE APPLICATION FOR STAY OF EXECUTION OF THE JUDGMENT

1. Choose a court date and time. Write this information in your Stay papers where it says to do so. See the table below for the days and times different Courts allow you to see a Judge for a Stay of Execution. The times change constantly. Make sure the filing/hearing times are still valid/correct.

2. Give required prior telephone notice of the Court hearing date and time to the opposing party.

You must call the Landlord/Plaintiff's attorney by 10:00 a.m. the Court day before you file your papers in Court. (You may give notice to the landlord directly only if he or she is not represented by an attorney.) For example, if you want to go to Court on Monday at 1:30 p.m., you must give prior notice the preceding Friday by 10:00 a.m. (You may give less notice only if you have a good reason. When you give the notice you must state all of the following:

- your name,
- the case name and number,
- the date and time you will go to Court,
- the name and address of the court and the department or room number,
- that you are asking the court for an "Ex Parte Application for a Stay of Execution of the Judgment and an Order Shortening Time for Service and Hearing on a Motion to Set Aside the Judgment.

On the next two pages you will find the forms

- "Unlawful Detainer Ex Parte Application Schedules and Locations" that gives the locations, days and times to schedule your Ex Parte Application for Stay EACH COURT HAS DIFFERENT HEARING & FILING TIMES and
- "Ex-Parte Notice in an Unlawful Detainer Case" Script that you can use as a guide on how to give proper Ex Parte notice.

If you unable to reach the person, you can leave a voicemail message for him/her or a message with someone else at that person's home or office. After giving notice, write down: the date and time you called, if you left a message and who you left a message with, and if you spoke to someone, his/her name and what he/she said to you.

3. Prepare Your Ex Parte Application for Stay of Execution of the Judgment

Attached to this packet is a How-to Guide on how to fill out the required forms. Do not fill in that guide. We have also given you blank versions of the forms for you to fill out.

4. Prepare a Motion to Set Aside the Judgment (A separate packet of forms).

This Motion asks the Court to "re-open" your case, but this Motion on its own may take almost 3 weeks to be held in Court. As most people only have a few days, this "Ex-Parte" Application seeks an immediate hearing and requires a phone call to the other side before 10 am the court day before the hearing.

4. Make 2 copies of all the Stay papers. You will also need to fill out your Motion to Set Aside Papers and follow the instructions in that packet. If you did not file an ANSWER, you will also need to a “proposed” answer to file with your papers. Take all the originals you filled out and copies to file at the Clerk’s office on the Court date for your Ex Parte Application for Stay Hearing.

5. You may have to pay a filing fee, unless you qualify for a fee waiver. You may also have to file an Answer to the Unlawful Detainer Complaint if you have not already done so. Ask for that How To packet and Forms packet for the Unlawful Detainer Answer.
